

Analyst in private equity real estate investments

ATP Real Estate is the private equity real estate investment arm of the ATP pension fund. We manage one of Europe's largest investment programs in real estate funds invested across Europe and the United States.

We are currently seeking a full time Analyst to support our investment team in the assessment and underwriting of new investment opportunities as well as managing the existing portfolio investments. The ideal candidate will have a passion for working in an international environment.

Your main tasks

- Take ownership and manage the incoming deal flow of new fund offerings, including data entry to ATP Real Estate's proprietary Relationship Management Database, preparation of internal weekly deal flow meetings and following up on ATP Real Estate's decisions regarding the fund offerings.
- Participate in meetings with fund managers to assess new investment opportunities and assist the investment team in due diligence of new investments.
- Support the investment team in managing and monitoring existing investments.
- Conduct any ad hoc analyses and research.

Our expectations

- You are a recent M. Sc. graduate with focus on investments, finance and/or economics, with a successful academic track record. You have a desire to work in an international setting and deepen your knowledge on private equity real estate investments.
- You are a self-starter, and enjoy a balance between independent work and analysis and team work.
- You have strong analytical and modeling skills and are a fluent user of Microsoft Office software.
- We do not require relevant working experience in investments or real estate, although basic understanding of real estate investing and underwriting is an advantage.
- You are fluent in both written and spoken English, which is ATP Real Estate's working language.

We offer

- You will be working with a leading institutional investor in an exciting investment area that has grown substantially during the previous years.
- You will have an opportunity to assess a variety of real estate investment strategies on an international basis.
- You will be able to influence your job and will be an important part of a dynamic and international team.
- You will have the ability to expand your skill set and broaden your role as you become more experienced.
- An attractive pension scheme, healthcare insurance, and other employee benefits.
